- Must have passed at least twelve hours of credit at LSU
- Must have had at least a 2.5 GPA during the last regular semester and an overall 2.5 GPA
- Must be in good academic and conduct standing with the University

Composition of Court:

- The 2009 LSU Homecoming Court will consist of 14 students.
- Applications are only accepted individually.
- Eligibility is limited to Undergraduate students.
- Only Senior court members are eligible for King and Queen.

Total number of hours complete:	Students Selected:
12-30 hours	1 male and 1 female
31 hours to 60 hours	1 male and 1 female
61 hours to 91 hours	2 males and 2 females
92 or more hours	3 males and 3 females

Updated: October 5, 2009 to reflect new PAWS Voting deadline of 5pm, Thursday, November 12.

Year Classification of Students*

The number of semester hours of credit earned determines a student's year classification, as follows:

Freshman • fewer than 30 hours

Sophomore • at least 30, but fewer than 60

Junior • at least 60, but fewer than 92

Senior • 92 or more

Exception • A student in a five-year program with at least 60, but fewer than 136 hours, is a junior; with 136 or more, a senior.

Selection Process: First Round Interviews, Second Round Interviews and Student Voting

- Follow the directions carefully.
- Campaigning is not permitted.
- A first round panel of judges will review the applications and choose the top 15 men and top 15 women. These names will be posted on the LSU Homecoming Website by Friday, October 23, 2009 and those selected will receive an email Friday, October 23, 2009.
- The top 30 candidates will then participate in an interview on either Tuesday, October 27, 2009 or Wednesday, October 28, 2009. Interviews will take place from 3:30 pm to 5:30 pm. All applicants not present on his/her assigned interview night will forfeit their eligibility to participate in Court.
- Those selected for a second round interview should be prepared to attend a brief informational meeting on Monday, October 26, 2009 regarding the Homecoming Court obligations.
- Acceptable attire for Interview Night is business dress. Official photos will also be taken at this time.
- After the interviews, those selected to represent on the 2009 LSU Homecoming Court will be notified via e-mail on November 4, 2009.
- The LSU student body will vote via PAWS for Homecoming King and Queen from Tuesday, November 10, 2009 through Thursday, November 12 at 3 pm. Only Senior Court members are eligible for King and Queen. The senior court members receiving the most votes will be announced as the Homecoming King and Queen during the LSU vs. Louisiana Tech Game on Saturday, November 14th. In the event that there is a tie amongst the student votes, the Homecoming Court Committee will break the tie using the application score.

Directions for Completing the Homecoming Court Application:

This application is used during the first and second rounds of the Homecoming Court selection process. Please follow the directions closely and type your application. Incomplete applications may lead to disqualification.

Points are assigned to your application based on the information you have supplied. Points are earned based on the number of semesters of organizational membership, leadership positions held and organizational committees in which you have participated. The number of semesters should include past semesters, as well as the current semester. For example, if you are serving as the President of an organization for this academic year, you may only count the fall 2009 semester. We encourage you to list all campus involvement since becoming a student at LSU.

Directions:

- List membership in one organization/activity per line on the attached application.
- List any leadership positions within that organization on the lines immediately following.
- List each activity/organization only once.

Campus Organizations and Campus Service:

- List all involvement with organizations associated with LSU. Please consider all of the types of organizations: Social, Service, Honorary, Political, Professional, Military, Athletic, Arts, Communications, etc.
- First list the organization's name and how many semesters you have been involved.
- Next list any leadership positions held within that organization and the number of semesters held.

Awards, Scholarships, Honors:

- List any and all awards, scholarships and honors you have received since coming to LSU. Indicate the number of semesters for each award. If the award is given once a year, count it as 2 semesters. If the award is given once a semester (such as Dean's List) you may count it as one semester. If the award is given more frequently than once per semester, you may count it as one semester.

Community Service:

- List all involvement in community service organizations outside LSU. List the organization's name, your title or position, and the number of semesters involved. Do not list community service done through campus organizations to which you belong.
- Please do not list membership in your local religious organization. If you have participated in community service via that organization (aside from attending religious services), please list that in this section.

Work/Internships:

- Please list all work and internship experience while enrolled at LSU.
